Description

PROFILES IN HISTORY

435. Pertwee rifle from Dr. Who. (BBC Television) Possibly the most famous gun ever used on Dr. Who (and by possibly the most famous "Doctor") is the pistol-rifle used by Pertwee in the 1970's episodes "Frontier in Space" and "Invasion of the Dinosaurs", among others. Constructed of a dense material with liberal use of Perspex and other illuminating details, the rifle has a trigger which activates lights in the circular center. This gun was originally black, but was repainted silver when it was sent to Pinewood studios for use in "Frontiers in Space". The original details from the gun's recesses are still intact, and can be seen in many publicity photos. Originally acquired from the BBC, this is an incredible specimen of 1970's British science-fiction, and is one-of-a-kind. Measures 32 in. in length. $3,000 - $5,000
