Description

This auction is for a genuine screen seen BBC prop used in the classic seventh Doctor story The Happiness Patrol. It is a mask worn by one of the Drones who can be seen right at the beginning of part 3 of the story marching toward Forum Square. Described by Helen A (Sheila Hancock) as having '...dreary clothes, turgid music and terrible deportment...', she dispatches Happiness Patrol F to 'effect a large scale disappear.' The Drones then help the Doctor to rescue Ace. The mask itself is made from an unidentified material that has been painted in grey. It is fully lined with felt, with extra padding around the forehead and eyes and there is a piece of elastic attached to the back, to enable the mask to be worn. Overall the mask is in excellent condition, although some of the paint has come away from the tip of the nose. It was bought by me from The Who Shop in East Ham (London) several years ago and has been in my collection ever since. It will be supplied with the original sales documentation. Winning bidder is to pay £3 recorded postage to the UK (overseas bidders please add £5), and please do not hesitate to contact me with any queries.
