Description (revised)

Part-costume of an original on-screen Timelord costume.

This auction consists of a Timelord head piece and an under-garment robe they wore under their cloaks, both made by the BBC costume department. The robe front is of a thick, quality hesian/wool material with a cotton back piece. The helmet or headpiece is that of a strong molded paper-mache like substance, strengthened with laquer and gold paint with a decorative braid design.

There is a label under the collar which is just readable and possibly that of the extra/actor 'Bob Hargreaves'?

This was bought from the auction held by John Nathan Turner at the Doctor Who Day in Longleat back in August 1997, and went under the hammer as '1980's Timelord costume, possibly Trial of a Timelord'. On viewing 'Trial' I can just make it out as one of the Jury chaps.

Costume is of some weight and postage is that of standard rate. Please specify if you wish to receive it by Special Delivery or other insured postage and the relevant rate will be calculated. Happy Bidding and Thankyou.
