Description \(revised\)

This is one for all you Doctor Who fans out there !! I have for sale here a rare Tardis Tuner AM Radio with sound effects an either set the unit to receive AM radio or at the flick of a switch the lights at the front flash combined with a pulsating sound pitch with the use of the volume dial. The Tuner is complete with its original box, which is in excellent condition. The Tune was a kid so as you may see in the photos there are a few scratches or knocks on it but nothing broken. The unit is still in w AM transmissions fine. The sound effects crackle a bit at certain frequencies but are still very audible. I think this is due to r and tear. This is certainly not one to miss out if you are a serious Doc-Who fan. Please E-mail any enquiries and happy bidd
