Description \(revised\)

This is a very old Doctor Who jigsaw titled "Retreat To The Tardis", featuring William Hartnell running for the Tardis, through a battle scene involving Daleks shooting down jet fighters which are bombing them!

In the background can be seen the dome of St.Paul's Cathedral, so the setting is presumably meant to be a London park. I guess it has to have been made some time between 1963 and 1966 when Hartnell played the Doctor.

It is complete and in good condition with 29 quality plywood pieces, approx 26cm x 35cm. The box top is original and good, but has been pasted onto a non-original box.

LOW RESERVE!

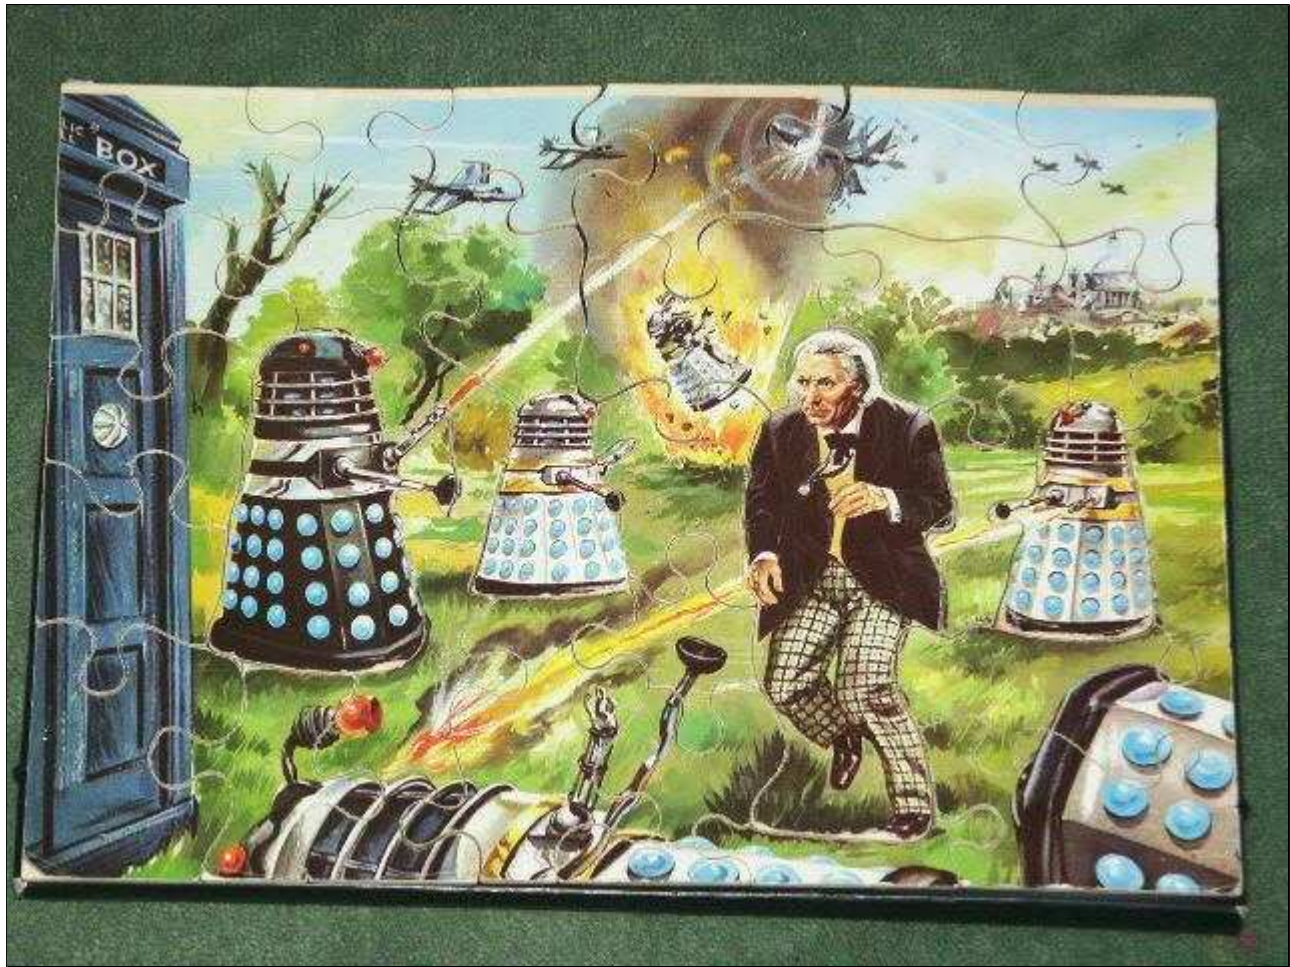

I will ship anywhere in the world at the buyers expense, and accept most forms of payment including cash in most major currencies (please ask in advance for an exchange rate), cheques drawn on a UK bank account (7 days to clear), UK Postal Orders, International Money Orders in GBP, PayPal. Please ask about other options.

Unless instructed otherwise I will ship by the most economical method available, if you require faster shipping or insurance please ask. I cannot be held responsible for loss or damage in the post if insurance is declined.

Payment must be received within 10 days of the auction ending otherwise the item will be relisted.

I reserve the right to cancel bids from those with substantial negative feedback, I welcome all genuine bidders but will NOT tolerate time wasters!
